SHERIFF'S RACE CLOSE

Bulk of Country Vote Must Be in Before Close Race of 11 Is Decided

When the counting of the city of Bismarck vote was completed late this afternoon Governor Nestos had rolled up a lead of 1,327 votes over B. F. Baker and Senator McCumber led Frazier by 1,050. Election officials in the west precinct of the Second ward were tallying up their books about 4 p. m. after working all night and during the day.

Scattered precincts outside of Bismarck gave returns such as to make an estimate of a majority of 500 for Governor Nestos in Burleigh county appear to be conservative.

In seven of the 10 precincts in Bismarck, including the Fourth and Fifth wards complete, the leaders in the sheriff race in the city had the following number of votes: Barnes 230; Kufer 225; Kelly 527; Thompson 317; William 238; Hedstrom 111; McGarvey 174. The same number of precincts for state attorney showed: Allen, 513; Elliott 466; McCarter 87; McCurdy 690.

It was apparent that a great portion of the rural vote would have to be reported before definitely settling either the sheriff or state attorney contest.

There was a slump in the league vote in some precincts.

Thirty-four out of 58 precincts in Burleigh county gave:
McCumber 2,486; Frazier 1,766; Nestos 2,005; Baker 1,544.

An example follows in these comparisons: Cronwell pt., Nestos 16; Baker 22; Recall, Nestos 11; Frazier 35. Burnt Creek, Nestos 6; Baker 47. Recall Nestos 5; Frazier 36. Lincoln, Nestos 14; Baker 41. Recall, Nestos 5; Frazier 46. In some there was a gain shown.

For the supreme court Judge Nussle led in this county with Birdzell second and Johnson third, the latter well up. Judge Robinson was well up with Richardson and Engle in some precincts.

Poundexter and Olmstead ran ahead of the Nonpartisan ticket in many precincts while O'Connell was ahead of the rest of the Nonpartisan ticket in some Bismarck precincts.

E. J. Gobel had a long lead for coroner and Clough and Johnson were high men for auditor in the city of Bismarck.

Twenty-three of the 59 precincts in Burleigh county gave the following vote: Frazier 1218; McCumber 1684; Nestos 1699; Baker 1017.

"PEP" MAN
GIVES TALK TO CITIZENS

"How to sell Bismarck to the public" was the main theme of a short address given by Howard J. Wise, haupt before a representative group of local business men today at a noon day luncheon in the Grand Pacific dining room.

Mr. Wise emphasized the importance of using some publicity about Bismarck when the new vehicular bridge was opened. He said that it would give the business men a chance to make a lot of noise about the wonders of the city, and place it on the map once for all as a trade center for people 30, 40 and 50 miles away.

When this subject was brought up George N. Keniston stated that plans were already under way for the staging of the biggest pageant that North Dakota had ever seen when the bridge is dedicated. This affair was to be put on by Mandan and Bismarck jointly, and will be a history of developments of North Dakota from pioneer days.

In discussing the arrangements with the business men, Mr. Wise emphasized the importance of giving something away. He said that when something was given away it was better if possible than what was ordinarily sold, in order to win the complete confidence of the people.

Mr. Wise also touched upon the pulling power of advertising. Women never read page advertisements, blocked advertising, or announcement advertisements," said the speaker. "They do not as a rule spend more than 15 minutes in reading an entire paper. They glance through it, searching for that which they wish to find, seeking advertisements, or furnishings that they may have use for but nothing more."

The business men were enthusiastic about the plans to put Bismarck on the map.

Ambushing Is Report, Insurgents Adopting Guerilla Warfare

(By the Associated Press)
London, June 29.—Fighting in the streets of Dublin is increasing in intensity says a Central News dispatch from the Irish capital at this hour. Irregulars on the outskirts of the besieged Four Courts district are receiving reinforcements, the message says.

Three civilians were killed in today's fighting, bringing the total number of dead to nineteen. Business houses, as well as banks are closing the dispatch says, and the newspapers have suspended publication.

(By the Associated Press)
Dublin, June 29.—The irregular Irish forces have captured seventeen troops of the provisional government in the Donnell street ear, according to a report late this afternoon, which could not be officially confirmed.

(By the Associated Press)
Dublin, June 29.—Rory O'Connor's band of insurgent Irish Republican army men was still holding out in its Four Courts stronghold at noon today against the continuing attempts of the Free State troops to dislodge it.

Firing was in progress all the forenoon and there was an especially heavy burst of fire at eleven o'clock. Sniping operations were almost incessant, with the casualties estimated this morning at more than fifty, hourly increasing.

The replies from O'Connor's men to the firing on the Four Courts were feeble. The garrison, which is believed to number about 150 is said, however, to have unlimited supplies of ammunition and plenty of provisions.

The prospect was that the operations at the Four Courts could increasingly assume the character of an investment. The building lends itself peculiarly to defensive purposes, and it is considered unlikely that the Free State troops will at least for the present, attempt to take it by assault.

The most menacing feature of the situation from the provisional government standpoint is the fact that the insurgents are developing activities along guerrilla lines, particularly in the form of ambushes. Many of the insurgents wear no uniforms and the Free State soldiers, like the British before the truce are exposed to attack while traversing narrow streets to and from their barracks.

The prevalence of these tactics make it seem improbable to the government side that the situation throughout the city will speedily become much better.

Direct telegraphic communication between Dublin and the North and West of Ireland is practically at a standstill. A number of wires between Dublin and London were cut last night near Howth.

In other parts of the country the provisional government also has military affairs on its hands. In Drogheda, the insurgents who are occupying the round tower fort on the hill commanding the town have been invested by the Free State troops in the same way as at the Four Courts in Dublin. The Drogheda position of the irregulars is regarded as unusually strong.

From other parts of Ireland there are many rumors of insurgent action but the reports are indifferent of confirmation as Dublin is completely isolated.

FRESH TERMS OFFERED.
(By the Associated Press)
London, June 29.—Fresh terms were offered the insurgents in the Four Courts in Dublin today, says a Dublin dispatch to the Evening News but they refused to surrender and after two hours delay, firing was resumed.

The early evacuation of the strong hold is expected, however, as the water and lights have been cut off. An unconfirmed report was received here this afternoon that the railroad station at Foyne, twenty miles from Limerick occupied by Irish provisional government troops was attacked and set afire.

$25,000 FOR FLANNERY

The Judge Named as Executor of the Estate, Was Life Long Friend of Deceased

(By the Associated Press)
St. Paul, Minn., June 29.—A personal estate of "over $500,000" and real estate valued at $5,000 is disposed of in the will of Alexander McKenzie, one time political leader of North Dakota, filed for probate here today. Mr. McKenzie died in St. Paul last week.

Petition for proof of the instrument was signed by two daughters, Mrs. Anna McKenzie McDonald of Regard Quebec and Mary B. McKenzie Foster, West Mount, Quebec. These two daughters are left the residue of the estate after bequests of $50,000 to his wife, Mrs. Elva McKenzie now deceased and like amounts to Jeanette Alpha McKenzie, an unmarried daughter, Alexander J. McKenzie and Thomas O. McKenzie, sons, of Yonkers, New York are made. The bequest to the wife will elapse and become a part of the residuary estate, it was said.

The will also leaves $25,000 to Judge G. P. Flannery, St. Paul, a life long friend who is named as executor of the estate.

Three half-sisters, Catherine, Mary and Jeanette McRae and five half-brothers, Duncan, Farquhar, William, Donald and John McRae, all of whom live at Beaverton, Ontario, Canada, are given $40,000 to be shared a like by the eight.

Specific Bequests
This makes the specific bequests in money, in the $50,000 given to the wife, $265,000, so that the two daughters named as residuary legatees will get at least half the estate. None of the other heirs or legatees except the two daughters join in the petition, so there is nothing to indicate whether the two sons and the other daughter will acquiesce in the provisions of the will or wish to overturn it.

The will drawn in the testator's own hand is dated at the outset, and in the attesting clause, February 5, 1918, while in the body of the will, the testator recites that it is made "this 30th day of January 1918," indicating that it was not executed on the date originally intended by the testator.

In a devise of the farm land on Lake Simco to his half-brothers and half-sisters, William McRae is mentioned twice while the name of Donald is not given, which was taken by court officers to have been an error in drafting the will.

Duluth, Minn., June 29.—Three and one-half years in an office convinced Miss Eileen Carroll, 21-year old Minneapolis girl that a person perfectly at home in the great outdoors had no business doing stenographic work for a living, so she applied for a position doing patrol work in the Superior National Forest. She impressed Supervisor Valvin A. Dahlgren, and now she is a full-fledged patrolwoman, the first to be permanently stationed in the north woods.

Miss Carroll plans to continue in forestry work the year around. She said she wasn't afraid of bears, as the forest service promptly gave her the acid test and assigned her to a post deep into the forest. Here she was virtually lost for three weeks. Finally she received a letter asking for an interview. Apologizing for the delay in answering she explained that "a lookout's hours are rather long—I haven't had time to answer sooner."

(By the Associated Press)
Mexico City, June 29.—Escaping from his bandit kidnappers after four days of captivity, A. Bruce Bielaski, former head of the American department of justice investigation bureau has reached Mexico City.

Covered with dust, unshaven and showing plainly the marks of his imprisonment in the mountains, Bielaski was taken to his apartment where his wife and a half dozen friends greeted him.

His friends declared the former American official had escaped from his captors at Tetzohal, walking the thirty miles to Cuernavaca near which place he was captured last Sunday.

Jules La Coud, head of the Mexico City banking firm which is understood to have furnished the $10,000 for the ransom on the order of Mr. Bielaski's New York company, said he had been authorized to state that Bielaski eluded his captors before the money was paid. Bielaski suffered no more ill effects than might be expected from four days of roughing it in the mountains.

Press dispatches from Tampico quote W. P. Taylor manager of the Tampico branch of the Cortez Oil Company as confining the capture of forty employees at the company's Aguada camp by the bandit Gorroave but do not state whether the ransom has been paid.

Washington, June 29.—Mexican rebels who seized the Aguada camp of the Cortez Oil company in Tampico region Sunday, holding the property and forty American employees for 15,000 pesos ransom, withdrew on Monday without damage or injury to the employees, but with threats to return, Consul Shaw at Tampico today advised the state department.

The department received a later message, however, which said the same rebels yesterday seized a camp of the La Corona Oil company, a Dutch-British concern in the same vicinity and were holding 85 employees including about six Americans.

UNION HEADS
ARE SUMMONED
BY RAIL BOARD

Officers of Six Shopcraft
Unions Are Cited to Appear for an Inquiry

JEWELL SERVES NOTICE

Says that Strike Call Has Been Issued for the Shopcraft Unions

(By the Associated Press)
Detroit, June 29.—Decision whether to call a strike of the approximately 400,000 railroad maintenance of way men in the country probably will be made late today, E. F. Grable, international president of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers announced.

B. M. Jewell declared he personally would attend the meeting called by the labor board "only under protest" and that he could not speak for the six shopcraft presidents until he had consulted with them. Several of them are said to be on their way to their headquarters to direct strike operations.

(By the Associated Press)
Chicago, June 29.—The United States railroad labor board today cited the national officers of the six shopcraft unions; the railway executives now meeting here and the officers of four other railroad unions to appear before the board tomorrow afternoon in an inquiry into "the threatened interruption of traffic."

In addition to the shopmen, whose strike order already has been issued, the four other unions cited, now taking a strike vote, are the Clerks, Maintenance of Way, Stationary Firemen and Oilers and Signalmen.

B. M. Jewell, leader of the shopmen, today served formal notice on the railroad labor board that a strike call has been issued "on all railroads and Pullman operating department local lodges of the six shopcrafts."

The meeting of the railway executives and heads of the ten unions was set for 2 o'clock tomorrow by the labor board, when the formal notice of the strike call was received from the shopmen, announcing the date for the walkout, as next Saturday at 10 a. m.

Chicago, June 29.—Strike orders signed by the six craft presidents of the railroad shopmen's organization were sent out today to general chairmen, representing 400,000 men, authorizing a strike at 10 a. m. July 1 "on all railroads and Pullman shops in the United States."

Letters of instruction regarding the progress and conduct of the strike were being prepared at general headquarters here today and were to be mailed out tonight.

"The issue is clean-cut, with no strings attached," said E. M. Jewell, president of the railroad unions section of the American Federation of Labor. "It is up to the railway executives at their meeting today. They can stop this strike today or tomorrow, but after Saturday at 10 o'clock it is all off. The telegrams of the union heads to Cuyler, is the union's last word."

The general committee of 90 chairmen today were on the way to their home districts to take active charge of the strike. A sub-committee remained at headquarters to direct operations.

While union heads refused to discuss the strike, it was said a statement would be issued later in the day. No provisions for calling off the strike, after an acceptable settlement, have been made, it was understood, but instructions being prepared for district leaders will include such arrangements later, on telegraphic instructions.

Members of the Association of Railway Executives under the chairmanship of T. DeWitt Cuyler, to whom the shopmen's ultimatum was addressed, were to meet here today, in response to a call issued several weeks ago, but the program of this conference was not announced.

The strike issue is based on all three of the questions on which the shopmen have been voting for two weeks. These questions were on accepting the $60,000,000 wage cut ordered by the railroad labor board July 1, the modification of rules cutting down overtime pay by the board and the farming out of railroad work to outside contractors.

The strike ballots continued to come into union headquarters today and the complete count will not be announced before Saturday, it was said. The original returnable date of the ballots were June 30, although the vote was urged to be in by June 25, last Sunday. Union leaders said today they would await the last ballot tomorrow before compiling and announcing the total vote.

LEAGUE STRENGTH BOOSTED BY
I. V. A. OPPOSITION TO RETURN
OF SEN. PORTER J. McCUMBER

Nestos Machine Fails to Deliver Strength to Support of Senatorial Candidate.—Gives Governor 900 More Votes in Fargo than McCumber Polls.—Baker Fails to Get Benefit of Frazier Support.—Total Republican Vote May Reach 180,000.—More than 800 Precincts Heard From.

With 79,692 votes tabulated Senator McCumber has a majority of only 7,548 over Frazier. Out of 91,468 tabulated in governorship Nestos is maintaining a lead of 23,000. His majority has not begun to shrink very much although he lost 1,000 in the last 19,000 votes reported. A table of the vote by counties is reprinted in an adjoining column.

FEARS DEFEAT
In a Washington dispatch, Senator McCumber admitted that in face of returns he appeared to have been defeated. He gave this statement to the Associated Press.

The Fargo Forum which has been a bitter opponent of Senator McCumber predicts the senior senator's defeat at the hands of Lynn J. Frazier, recalled governor of the state, whose nomination the Fargo organ predicts in this evening's issue.

LOSES THIRD DISTRICT
As for Nestos, the Forum is content to point only to his lead, declaring that it is fast reaching the point of safety. Compilations of that newspaper give Nestos a lead over Baker in the First Congressional district of 14,000; in the second between 3,000 and 5,000 and concedes the third district to Baker.

Returns from 843 precincts gives Frazier 37,440; McCumber 44,611; 849 precincts gives Baker 35,228; Nestos, 58,214.

Fargo, N. D., June 29.—Complete returns from Ransom county: Frazier 1,985; McCumber, 1,310; Baker, 1,797; Nestos, 1,716. I. V. A. will have one member in the house, C. O. Christianson.

Moonsshine Liquor Cause of His Arrest, Glynn Says

(By the Associated Press)
Chicago, June 29.—John Francis Glynn, the paroled convict from the Stillwater Minnesota penitentiary whom the local police identified yesterday following a revolver battle with two policemen, today blamed his arrest on moonshine liquor, "convict" because of his verses and other writings while in prison, was captured after he was alleged to have entered a west side residence.

When captured the prisoner had in his possession several booklets and other of his poems and stories by which the police were able to identify him.

OBECHIN TRIAL IS FULL OF SURPRISES
Los Angeles, June 29.—Still more surprise testimony was promised for today by the state at the trial of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchin for the murder of her sweetheart, J. Belton Kennedy.

Counsel declined to tell in advance the exact nature of the testimony it was planning to produce, but it was declared it might be as "surprising" as that given recently by Paul Roman, convict, regarding correspondence and conversations he said he had with Mrs. Obenchin.

THE WEATHER

For twenty-four hours ending at noon today:
Temperature at 7 a. m. 56
Temperature at noon 72
Highest yesterday 77
Lowest yesterday 62
Lowest last night 62
Precipitation 0
Highest wind velocity 16

Weather Forecasts
For Bismarck and vicinity: Unsettled weather tonight and Friday, probably showers; not much change in temperature.
For North Dakota: Unsettled weather tonight and Friday, probably showers; not much change in temperature.

General Weather Conditions
An area of low pressure is advancing from the Northwest and showers are reported from Montana, western North Dakota and northern Wyoming. Showers have also occurred in Kansas, Missouri and the Lower Lakes region. Moderate temperatures prevail.

Balance of Ticket
Gov. Nestos seems to be carrying the rest of the ticket along with him although a complete check up may disclose some close contests. O'Connell, Olmstead, Poundexter and League railroad commissioners seem to be polling a vote that may bring them closer to their opponents by far than Baker is to Nestos.

Practically no returns are available upon the judiciary, or the intimated referendum measures. It probably will be another day before such information is available.

BANKERS WANT THE M'FADDEN BILL PASSED

Would Place National Banks On Same Basis as State Banks in Taxation

That the next session of the North Dakota Legislature may have a national law to govern in the passing of banking legislation concerning National Banks and to aid in arriving at some just and equitable system of taxation for state banks, the proposed law, which is known as the M'Fadden bill is designed to place national banks on the same basis as state banks in the matter of taxation of stock and other forms of taxation.

Two sections of the bill, which have been recommended for passage by a subcommittee follow. "Nothing herein shall prevent all of the shares in any association from being included in the valuation of the personal property of the owner or holder of such shares in assessing taxes imposed by authority of the state within which the association is located, but the legislature of each state may determine and direct the manner and place of taxing all the shares of national banking association located within the state, subject to the following restrictions:

"1. (a) That the tax imposed shall not be at a greater rate than is assessed upon other moneyed capital in the hands of the individual citizens of such state coming into competition with the business of national banks, (b) That in any state where a tax in lieu of a property tax is assessed upon the net income derived from such other moneyed capital, such state may in lieu of a tax on the shares, impose upon the bank an income tax, assessed upon the net income of the bank, but such tax shall not be at a greater rate than is assessed on the net income of such other moneyed capital.

"2. That the shares of any national banking association, owned by non-residents of any state, shall be taxed in the city or town—where the bank is located and not elsewhere. Nothing herein shall be construed to exempt the real property of associations from either state, county or municipal taxes to the same extent, according to its value, as other real property is taxed."

While the law may not be passed at the present session of congress, owing to the attempt to pass some large measures, its proponents in Congress believe it will pass soon after the next regular session begins.

FARMERS NOW NEED SPECIAL TYPE OF CREDIT

Cooperstown, N. D., June 28.—The farmers of North Dakota who are today facing a transition from a one-crop to a several crop system are in need of a special type of credit involving loans for a period of five years with provisions for partial payments on principal, John Lee Counter, president of the North Dakota Agricultural College told the state-wide livestock meeting here. "One crop farming calls for one-year thinking, and one-year thinking results in one year financing," said Dr. Coulter. "A mixed cropping system calls for at least five-year thinking and five-year financing. Farmers of Wisconsin and Minnesota have made the transition from the one-crop system to the mixed crop system, and therefore have no special problem of finance facing them at this time. North Dakota farmers are just beginning this transition, and a special type of credit is necessary to make this change as rapidly and efficiently as possible."

EARLY DEMAND FOR HARVEST LABOR EXPECTED

Fargo, N. D., June 28.—There will be an early and heavy demand for harvest labor in the state this year due to the large crop which is ripening evenly over the entire state. United States employment office officials and H. B. Fuller, state secretary of the Farm Bureau Federation said today.

Between 3,000 and 4,000 men will be needed in the northwestern part of the state alone between the fifth and twentieth of July, according to a statement by Clyde Nelson, in charge of the Minot office of the United States employment service, to Mrs. M. B. Bowe, in charge of the office at Fargo.

Even now it is becoming difficult to fill all orders for men Mr. Nelson says in his report adding that he can place all "good men" who apply at $25 to $50 per month and board until freezing weather comes.

SCHRIVER HELD NOT GUILTY

A jury in district court late yesterday afternoon acquitted J. H. Schriver, formerly of Werner, who came to Bismarck to engage in the transportation business, of assault on a young girl. The verdict was received by Judge H. L. Berry of Mandan who presided during the trial to the satisfaction of all parties. The state was represented by State Attorney McCurdy and the defense by Scott Cameron. Mr. Cameron declared he understood the jury was ready to come in within an hour after it went out about two o'clock but that delay in obtaining attorneys and others delayed the report another hour. He declared there was no division among the jury members so far as he could tell.

REPORT SHIP BURNS AT SEA

Search Is Being Made Off California Coast

(By the Associated Press) Los Angeles, June 28.—Search for an unidentified ship which last night was reported burning off Ventura, California, was being made early today by the steamer Humboldt.

A radio message picked up at the submarine station at Los Angeles harbor, purporting to come from the distressed vessel, gave her location as eight miles off Ventura but failed to state her name.

The steamer Humboldt went to render assistance and later reported she was steaming back and forth through a thick fog, hunting for the burning ship.

Residents of Ventura and of Santa Barbara reported having seen a light at sea, such as might have come from a burning vessel. It was estimated by Santa Barbarans the light was 25 or 30 miles from that port.

WOMAN REGENT OF MINNESOTA "U" APPOINTED

(By the Associated Press) St. Paul, Minn., June 28.—Mrs. Frank B. Warren of Minneapolis was today appointed by Governor Pross the first woman regent of the University of Minnesota.

Mrs. Warren, a graduate of the University and the leader in the Woman's Republican organization in Minneapolis, will succeed L. E. Porter, whose term as regent expires January 1, last.

One other new appointment was made by the governor, that of Dr. Egil Bockman of St. Paul, to succeed Charles Summers of the same city.

Fred B. Snyder, president of the board of regents, John G. Williams of Duluth, and Pierce Butler of St. Paul, were all reappointed by the governor. All of the appointees have accepted, Governor Pross announced.

SITUATION IN HERRIN TENSE

Reported Maintenance Men Ordered Away

(By the Associated Press) Herrin, Ill., June 28.—Reports still were current today that maintenance men were being warned by striking union coal miners to leave their posts at several mines near here, but the rumors could not be verified after investigation.

Union officials and miners denied the reports which included one that clerks and members of the office force of a mine at Carterville, near Herrin, who have been taking care of the mine since the strike started April 1, had been told to quit their jobs and leave town.

Some mines in the districts are being kept in repair by the clerical forces who do not belong to the miners union, but the majority of the mines are kept in condition by union miners.

Despite the reported threats against the caretakers, the situation at all mines in the district was quiet today.

The condition of two of the wounded strike-breakers in the hospital here remained critical and they are not expected to live.

THOUSANDS PAY TRIBUTE

Monster Funeral Held for Mrs. Len Small

(By the Associated Press) Kansas, Mo., June 28.—Thousands today came to pay final tribute to the memory of Mrs. Ida Moore Small, wife of Governor Len Small, who died Monday.

The highest and the most humble, state officials, men of power and influence, toll-marked men and women came to participate in the ceremonies.

Floral offerings have transformed the Small homestead into a palace of flowers. Hundreds of telegrams of sympathy and condolence have been received by the governor.

From ten o'clock this morning until 2 o'clock this afternoon the body of Mrs. Small lay in state. An endless throng filed by the casket. At 3 o'clock the funeral services were to be held at the home.

HAS S. D. NO MILLIONAIRES

Only One Person Had Income Of Over $60,000

Aberdeen, S. D., June 28.—How many will envy the man who paid the largest amount of income tax in South Dakota for the year 1920? Recent figures compiled by the statistical division of the income tax unit and released through the office of Leslie Jensen, collector of internal revenues for South Dakota show that in 1920 only one person in this state had an income of more than $60,000, while there were 34,689 others who had incomes ranging from $1,000 to $60,000.

There were six persons who listed their incomes for that year between $50,000 and $60,000 and five who were in the $40,000 to $50,000 class. From there the number jumped to 19 in the $30,000 to $40,000 class but dropped to 17 in the $25,000 to $30,000 division. Fifty-eight fell in the group having incomes between $20,000 and $25,000.

An odd feature of the statistical table is that 135 people filed returns showing they received income between $15,000 and $20,000. From there the number gradually increased until in the first class, that is incomes from $1,000 to $2,000 there were 12,320 returns filed.

The net income of all those who filed returns in 1920 was $103,578,036 and the total tax on this amount was $2,228,187. Compared with 1919 this shows a decrease in net incomes amounting to $29,596,756 and a decrease in the tax of $895,879.

HOLY SEE FOR RIGHTS OF JEWS

(By the Associated Press) Geneva, June 28.—The Holy See readily agrees that the Jews in Palestine must have equal civil rights with other nationalities but it cannot consent to the Jews enjoying a privileged, preponderant position over the other nationalities and faiths or of the rights of Christians being insufficiently safeguarded, the Vatican declares in a letter to the League of Nations.

GIPSY FLYER DAYS OVER

People Now Have Less Money To Go Airplaning

Fargo, N. D., June 28.—The good old days of the gypsy flyer or barnstormer seems to be about over, at least temporarily, according to Vernon Roberts, a local pilot. The gypsy flyer was the pilot who, in the years immediately following the war, took his plane—usually an old army machine of the "Jennie" type—and went about the country taking up passengers at ten or fifteen dollars a ride. He flew whether his fancy—or the wind—dictated, landed at any village that appealed to him, and did not worry much. Also, he frequently collected large sums for a day's work.

Of late, however, according to Mr. Roberts, people have had less money with which to go airplaning. He recounted some of his own experiences about North and South Dakota, Minnesota and Montana. Business was good in the last named state, he said, and he struck many towns where no airplane had ever been before. There was some difficulty about getting off the ground and gaining altitude, however, because the country is high and the air thin. People don't think they are getting their money's worth unless they get a long ways off the ground though flying has more "kick" to it closer to the ground where the speed of the plane makes itself more apparent.

Introduce "Land Settlement Bill"

Lansing, Mich., June 28.—If the state department of agriculture is successful in securing the passage of hoped-for legislation, Michigan will be the first state in the union to classify and certify its farm lands to protect purchasers against fraudulent sales of worthless land.

A "land settlement" bill, which has received the endorsement of the state department, is to be presented to the next session of the Michigan legislature. Its principal provision will be that every tract of farm land which is undeveloped or on the market, will be classified by the state department and certified as to its proper classification. In effect it will mean, if enacted, that land in Michigan will be graded and certified as

League Strength Boosted By I. V. A. Opposition

Returns Slow

Ballots cast in yesterday's primary election in North Dakota had not been counted in many precincts this morning, lending an element of uncertainty as to the time definite knowledge will be available on the outcome of the Republican and Democratic contests for nominations to the United States senate, congress and state offices.

Waiting For Rural Returns

Rural precincts reports on yesterday's state-wide primary were expected today to give a more definite line on the outcome of the Republican senatorial and gubernatorial contests, while tabulators also took up the work of counting the vote on the other Republican and the Democratic contests.

With Senator Porter J. McCumber nearly two to one in the senatorial contest in returns available early today, the Fargo Courier-News, official organ of the Nonpartisan League, declared the nomination of Lynn J. Frazier for the senate and the success of the entire league state ticket "seemed assured."

This claim was based on an apparent falling off of 25 per cent in the vote cast in the larger cities of the state, where the Independent strongholds were, and early indications that the rural vote would come more nearly up to the standard set in the recall election last fall. It is in the rural districts that the league is strongest.

I. V. A. Withhold Definite Claims

Independent leaders were withholding definite claims early today until they could see the trend the vote would take in the rural precincts. The Fargo Forum, an Independent Republican newspaper, declared in a number of city precincts where the league had won out in the recall election they had been defeated yesterday and that no corresponding overturn for the Independents had been noticed in available returns.

Governor E. A. Nestos, Independent-endorsed candidate for renomination on the Republican ticket had a lead of nearly 2-1-2 to 1 over his nearest opponent, B. F. Baker, Nonpartisan, before the rural precincts started reporting this morning. H.

Predict League Victory

The Courier-News claimed today that "the comparatively small lead now held by the Independents will vanish" when the rural districts start coming in more fully, and be converted into a majority of from ten to fifteen thousand for the Nonpartisan League. Every indication points to a complete victory for the ticket endorsed by the farmer-labor forces," the paper says.

If the Independent forces were successful, whereas if the league candidates win out in the Republican contests, the Independent Republican forces would throw their weight in the fall election to the Independent Democratic candidates, under present plans.

RAILROADS MAY YET PAY EXCISE TAX

Have Twice Fought Successfully Payment of Same Before U. S. Supreme Court

4 ROADS ARE AFFECTED

Assessment of the capital stock tax against the four principal railroads of North Dakota has been levied again for the years 1919, 1920 and 1921 and the third attempt will be made to collect this excise tax which the roads have twice fought successfully before the supreme court of the United States.

Tax commissioner C. C. Converse has made the present assessment on the same basis as that provided in the case of general corporations, that is, on a business basis. He holds that the statute provides for apportionment of capital investment to North Dakota on a business or gross earnings basis and that the methods previously used in laying the tax were designated in the statute to be used only in case a business basis of apportionment could not be correctly ascertained.

The amount of the tax assessed for the three years period against each railroad in the new levy was: Great Northern, $78,425.05; Northern Pacific, $64,863.66; Bismarck, $25,225.49; Milwaukee, $13,182.55.

Total, $181,697.75.

The tax is assessed upon the value of the capital investment of the railroads in the state. The rate of tax is 50c per $1,000 after deduction of the legal exemption of $1,000. The tax for the year 1922 also will be laid soon, adding quite materially to the above amount.

Formerly Declared Invalid

Two previous attempts of the state capital stock tax made against these companies have been declared invalid and void by the United States Supreme Court.

In the first assessment, the capital investments of the railroads of the state was found by applying to the gross market value of the stocks and bonds of the company the proportion of the North Dakota single track mileage to the total single track mileage of the system. The United States Supreme Court held that failure to deduct the value of securities and other nonoperating property invalidated the assessment and that apportionment on a mileage basis assigned a greater valuation to North Dakota than was proper. They held that the method of taxation was an unwarranted interference with interstate commerce and a taking of property without due process of law.

In the second assessment the capital investment of the railroads in North Dakota was found by taking such proportion of the outstanding stocks and bonds of the railroad representing operating railway property as the value of North Dakota property bore to the total system.

The court held that such tax was assessed on a basis which the statute did not authorize or sanction.

The roads also have contended that during the period of the government control, they were a part of the government, and therefore could not be assessed with an excise tax. For this reason the taxes for the year 1922 will be levied, entirely apart from the previous levies, to produce a test case for a year in which the government control question does not enter.

Municipalities Operate Own Movie Theaters

Christiania, Norway, June 29.—For several years municipal governments of a number of Norwegian cities have owned and operated their motion picture theaters. When they were taken over by the municipalities, the municipal boards decided the net profits should be used for the promotion of cultural purposes in the home localities.

A survey of how Christiania, has spent this income during the last year was published recently by the local press. The city has a population of about 260,000. The net profit of the operation in 1921 amounted to 1,349,000 kroner (about $350,000 at par). This sum was awarded to various cultural aims, namely 700,000 kroner to a studio building for the Norwegian sculptor Gustav Vigeland, 400,000 kroner to a "people theater" on the city's "East side," 100,000 kroner to a new concert hall, 100,000 kroner to a fund for the support of science and 49,000 kroner to a new music pavilion. In previous years the studio of Mr. Vigeland has been awarded 700,000 kroner, the "people's theater" 1,400,000 kroner and the concert hall 400,000 kroner from the same source.

The city of Trondheim in northern Norway, with a population of about 45,000 inhabitants, has a net profit of 322,000 kroner (about $80,000) from its municipal motion picture theaters in 1921. Of this surplus 100,000 kroner was awarded to the city theater and the rest in minor allotments to other cultural institutions and organizations. In a similar manner other Norwegian cities of late years have supported their cultural institutions and created new cultural enterprises.

PARK MEETING IS CALLED

Plan to Advertise National Parks Highway Move

Fargo, N. D., June 29.—Plans to make the National Parks Highway—as much of it as runs through North Dakota at least—better and to advertise it to the hundreds of thousands of automobile nomads who are ranging the country will be considered at a state meeting of the highway association to be held here July 10.

New markings and methods of finance for this and like work will be considered.

There is a campaign to move the train to the south, according to G. N. Keniston, Bismarck, secretary-treasurer, who called the meeting and for this reason the advantages of the more northerly route through South Dakota will be advertised. The present route was designated by the war department as the North Transcontinental highway. Possibility of locating an information office at Fallon or Terry, Mont., near where the Yellowstone trail parts from the National Parks highway and cuts down through South Dakota, will be considered, according to W. P. Chestnut, secretary of the Fargo Commercial club.

The National parks highway begins at Chicago, follows Lake Michigan to Milwaukee, cuts diagonally through Wisconsin to St. Paul and through Minnesota to Fargo. It runs straight across the state through Jamestown, Bismarck, Mandan, and through Medora and Sentinel Butte to Glendive, Montana, where it turns south to Billings and Livingston. At Livingston and Bozeman spur trails run down to Yellowstone National Park. From Bozeman the main trail turns north and travels by the way of Missoula and Spokane to Seattle. Thence south through Washington and Oregon to Crater Lake Park and Ashland, near the northern border of California.

NEW YORK TO ADOPT SMALL TOWN METHOD

It Has Decided to Appoint a "Welcome Stranger" Committee

New York, June 29.—New York, the second largest city in the world—some claim it is the largest—is going back to the favorite boom method of the small town. It is going to appoint a "Welcome Stranger Committee," figuratively to extend to the visitors the keys of the city.

This action was decided upon after the New York Hotel association set forth that folks in other parts of the country had got an entirely wrong idea of the city from what they had read about it in the newspapers.

The job of the new committee is to make it known that, despite the accounts of murders, suicides, holdups and scandals that have been featured in the news, New York is just as safe as any Gopher Prairie—with better water, milk and police protection to boot.

New York is particularly anxious to get this idea across immediately, for it is in the summer that honeymooners flock to the city from the ends of the land.

And the hotel men feel that these visiting couples, perched atop busses touring the city, are somewhat neglected. They need someone to shake them by the hand and show them the invisible ropes of the town, leaving them to pick out Lady Liberty, Grant's Tomb and the Woolworth Tower for themselves.

A meeting was called at which shopkeepers, transportation lines and theatrical interests were all represented and it was decided that the visitor must be personally shown that the idea is all wrong that everybody is out to rob him as soon as he sets foot on New York sidewalks.

Brig. Gen. Herbert M. Lord becomes national budget director on July 1. He succeeds Charles G. Dawes, Chicago banker and former comptroller of the currency.

Most governments at least have pretended to run their finances on the "budget plan" for a long time. That is to say, they estimated their incomes in advance and tried to keep expenses inside their revenue estimates. Frequently they didn't succeed but they made a "bluff" at it anyway.

Until a year ago the United States never worried as to what its prospective income was going to be. The government departments simply got

Service

Has New Meaning for Firestone Users

Service is a significant term to anyone using Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords.

Mileage is one way in which it has been given new meaning. The most exacting of tire-buyers—the big taxicab and motorbus companies and organizations using large numbers of automobiles for their salesmen—have been won to Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords by sheer proof of mileage superiority.

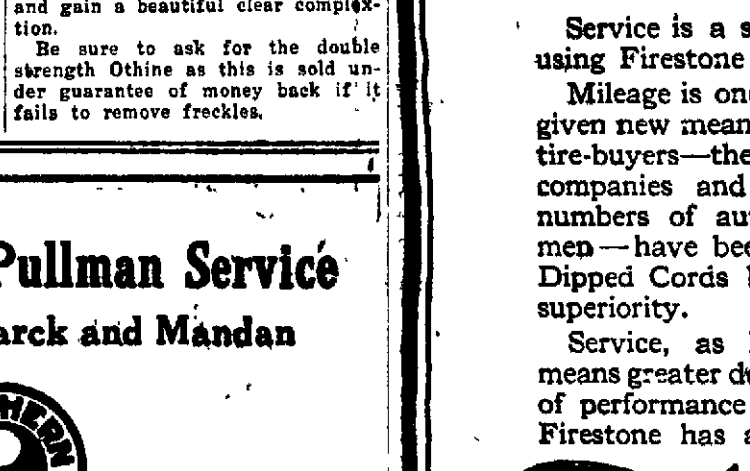

Service, as Firestone users know it, means greater dependability and uniformity of performance as well. This is because Firestone has adopted and held to such as big appropriations as they could, met them out of current revenues as long as they continued to come in and hit their deficits to luck.

Highly considering this pret-poor business, President Harding is solved to try the budget system out. He engaged Dawes as director. Dawes refused to stay more than a year and June 30 as per program, he quit. It would have been a much more satisfactory experiment but for the fact that the departments and Congress paid precious little attention to his estimates.

Tokio, June 29.—The privy council passed the naval treaty adopted at the Washington arms conference and submitted it today to the prime minister for ratification.

The council's approval included the provision against poison gas and the clause restricting for the count, the committee, said the committee found the ratio of ships apportioned to Japan disadvantageous to the empire, and requested the government to use greater care in the future.

The committee of the privy council, however, found that the Japanese delegates at Washington were not at fault in failing to make better terms. From a spirit of respect for the Washington conference in its desire to maintain world's peace, the committee recommended ratification without amendment.

YOU POCKETBOOK

Even in hot weather you are interested in money—how to get more dollars, how to get more out of each dollar.
It costs you $155 now to buy what cost $100 in July, 1914. This is the latest report of the National Industrial Conference Board which figures that a wage-earner's cost of living is 55 per cent higher than pre-war.
Some things have dropped in price more than others.
The board, striking an average for the whole country, finds that prices are above pre-war in these percentages: food 39, shelter 65, clothing 50, fuel and lighting 74 and sundries of incidentals 74 per cent.
You note that prices are out of balance. There's no equilibrium. That's why business revival is coming faster in some industries than others. It's like a watch with each wheel going at a different speed. The whole thing keeping "bad time."

A shotgun that costs 90 cents in Germany enters our country and is sold to a consumer for $15.
A bird-cage sells for $1.20 in Germany, crosses the ocean, and an American goes into a store and pays $11 for it.
These and similar cases are observed by Senator Watson of Indiana.
The buying power of our dollar seems to vary with the parties that are doing the buying, even making allowances for the costs of distribution.

How about the German workman who produces these cheap products? He is working for low wages—living on the equivalent of 40 cents a day. In American money, according to Congressman Ira C. Copley, who recently has been touring Germany.
You ponder all these facts, and are apt to come to the logical conclusion that something is wrong with the system of money, since the dollar is like a yardstick that measures three feet in one place and three inches in another.
Considering its peculiar and uncertain behavior, it is small wonder that money is as hard to catch as a greased pig.
Money is the most imperfect of man's inventions.

LIFE ON MARS
Marconi, working with delicate machinery on his yacht, is unsuccessful at receiving a wireless message from Mars. He will try again.
Mars recently has been the nearest to our earth since 1899—a trifle of only about 42,000,000 miles away. At times the distance is 235,000,000 miles. In 1924 the red planet will approach within 37,000,000 miles of earth.
When we become conceited about traveling several hundred miles an hour in airplanes, we should ponder the speed of the mysterious bodies we call stars.
True philosophy is humility in the realization of the infinite wonders of the universe, compared with the speck, humanity.

What would you see if you could travel to Mars in a rocket?
To start with, you'd find a planet about half the size of the earth. Mars has two moons. A day and a night lasts 37 minutes longer than on earth. The Martian year is 687 days long.
The oceans of Mars are rapidly drying up. It has at least 200 "canals," some 75 miles wide and 3000 miles long. Our astronomers claim they see, not these canals, but the vegetation that sprouts up along them in springtime.
Temperature on Mars averages 60 degrees.
A rock that weighs 100 pounds on earth would weigh only 38 pounds on Mars.
This difference in gravity, along with other peculiarities of environment, causes our scientists to believe that if people live on Mars they are from 12 to 15 feet tall.

All these scientific facts and speculations about Mars are interesting. More interesting is man's ability to reach out through space so many millions of miles and gather these pieces of direct and circumstantial evidence.
The knowledge and machinery with which our scientists accomplish these feats were acquired patiently and slowly, through many thousands of years.
It is a great step forward from primitive man, who believed that the shining, heavenly bodies were devils and supernatural beings. The human race is progressing steadily, mentally, and the goal would seem marvelous if we could picture it.
Mankind is sailing slowly, through fog and night, to an unknown destination.

astronomers, is conducting a nightly patrol of the sky under the guidance of Harvard College observatory.
Just at present the telescopes are much pointed toward a variable star known in the catalogues as S S Cygni.
The interesting point about S S Cygni is its irregular habit of changing in brightness. Somewhere out in space it hangs a great blazing sun, perhaps many times larger than our own sun. We see it ordinarily as a star of less than twelfth magnitude. Suddenly—all in a few hours time—it will increase in brightness to between the eighth and ninth magnitudes. It will hold this brightness for a period of some days or perhaps a week or two, then will taper off in its usual dimness and remain dim for about three months.
An increase of four magnitudes means that the star at its bright stage is giving off 43 times as much light as in its dim stage. Imagine what would happen to this earth if our own sun began to behave in such a manner. If the sun increased as much as one magnitude in brightness, all life, such as we know it, would start to shrivel up and die. An increase of four magnitudes in the brightness of the sun would bake the earth to a crisp.

When a bright sun, revolving about another sun that is not so bright, comes into our line of sight, all that we see is a single star apparently increasing in magnitude. But the spectroscope tells the story of whether we are looking at one star, or two stars, or a number of stars revolving about a common center of gravity.

S S Cygni is a single star and its changes in brightness are therefore not due to eclipses, but come from within. The astronomer, patiently working to solve these riddles, are on the trail of the secret of the universe. One small fact, finally gleaned from endless research, provides the key with which to unlock many other facts and gradually we learn more about the universe of which our sun and our earth form so inconsiderable a part.

FAKERS
Frank M. Davis, Chicago postoffice inspector, ran across a letter that offered "Genuine Canadian rye, $8 a quart. Only a limited supply. Sent by registered mail."
Davis sent $2—and got a quart of rye again.
The two ambitious gentlemen who sent the letter were taken in custody, charged with using the mails to defraud. They must be praying that the jury will have a sense of humor.
This is the "best graft" since the fakers who advertised a genuine steel engraving of George Washington for $5—and filled orders with two-cent stamps.
Clever boys like these could get rich quickly in legitimate pursuits. Unfortunately, they are too impatient.

AIRPLANES
The next big movement in science and engineering will be a popularizing of the airplane. This is inevitable, now that planes are being made cheaply and a way has been found in England to raise or lower them in a straight line instead of requiring a big landing field.
A few more fool-proof devices, like gyroscopes, are needed. Then some bright morning will awaken the world and airplanes will be common. When it starts, it will come as fast as the radio craze.
Look for the airplane to change the whole structure of civilization.

EDITORIAL REVIEW
Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are printed here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

IRELAND IS ON HER WAY
The cold truth about conditions in Ireland is told badly enough in the quotations on Irish financial securities. The period taken is the past seven months. Dublin corporation $45, 1944, then 55, are now 70; Bank of Ireland stock has come up from 192 to 225; Great Southern & West Railway stock was 45, is now 59. In the north, Belfast corporation, $45, 1935, have risen from 66 to 79, and Great Northern Ireland ordinary stock from 50 to 69.
That covers North and South and in diverse interests. The birth pangs of a nation are ready in this day of rapid communication, make nervous reading. At bottom, Ireland is gaining confidence and these with most to lose materially have confidence in her.
The news stories give the local color. The financial columns provide the facts. Ireland is on her way.

FRIGHTFUL SLANG EXPOSED
Not with a desire to be tiresome in the matter of the latest slang, but just for the sake of keeping up to date, we now are able to announce another best. The twin expressions "storm and strife" and "twist and twirl" meaning, respectively, war and girl, are sufficiently well known to need no comment, but their origin was on the Pacific coast; they are typically western expressions that have been assimilated into the glossary of the latest flapper argot. Now, these western expressions were not coined by giddy girls or their companions, but were the product of hangerson about the prizing or the sporting followers. Taken in combination with pig Latin, these twin expressions make a weird combination and produce a method of talk difficult of comprehension except for those who have been initiated into the mystery. Ready for a reason? "I pay the yampus on the fields of wheat with the Rubie fiddle and flute."
Not very comprehensive, is it? Yet the translation is:
"Pipe the jam coming down the street with the Rubie suit."
"Fiddle and flute" means suit. "Fields of wheat" equals street. The rest is pig Latin.
Take it from us, the new stuff is all the rage among the "flower struts." Here are some more examples:

"Flow deep"=sleep. "Mince pies"=eyes. Thus, "black mince pies" means black eyes. "Bees and honey"=money. "Lean and fat"=hut. "Elephant's trunk"=drunk. "Shovel and brown"=room.
When you are of the elect and know that "eight minutes" means a real hardboiled egg, that "bee knees" are very nice, that a "love nest" is a hotted hair, that a "pocket twister" is a gold digger, that "blow the joint" means to leave, "grab a flop" to take a seat, and a "hanskid" is a lady who can take her liquor—when you know all this and can converse intelligently by using the latest combined words and pig Latin, then you may consider yourself up to date—Portland Oregonian.

They include, I, Penn and the Indians; II, Washington uniting the thirteen colonies; III, beginning of the hundred years of peace, the treaty of Ghent; 1814; IV, emancipation and reconstruction; civil war; V, world peace, treaty of Versailles, 1919.
In addition to this the Boy Scouts have a pageant presentation.
The closing program for today includes the pageant by the little people of Junior Town and a lecture in the afternoon by John E. Aubrey on "The One Mile Town." Dr. Aubrey spoke here last year at which time he was enthusiastically received by a large audience.
"A Fair of Sixes" was staged by the Premier Artists Quintette for the audience yesterday evening. It drew the largest audience that has yet attended the Chautauqua entertainments.
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wells will present "Alonement" as their evening program. This play was especially written for them by Herbert Thomas, the famous English playwright. It has always been one of the most popular plays on the Chautauqua platform.

Farm Boys Attend Rotary Luncheon
Thirty-one farm boys attending the farm boys' camp under the leadership of County Agent George Lise of Morton county and Ralph Newcomer of Grant county were guests of the Rotary club at their noon luncheon today. Other guests were B. K. Baghdigian, the Chautauqua lecturer and Major H. R. Bittling. The boys thoroughly enjoyed the dinner and entertainment, the main dining room of the hotel being used. Brief talks were made by Mr. Newcomer, Mr. Lise and Mr. Ault. Mr. Baghdigian gave a splendid talk on Americanism and Major Bittling told the farm boys that their greatest opportunity lay right here in Morton and Grant counties the best country in the world.

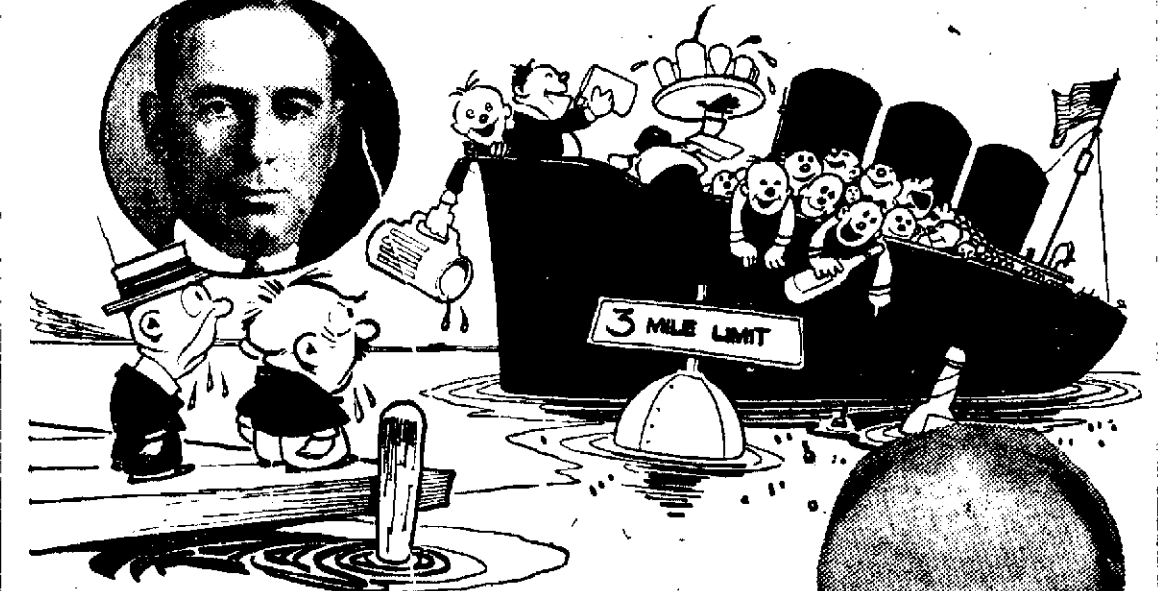

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts
Nancy and Nick heard someone talking. And as they turned a corner of the Moon they came upon Comet-Legs and Mr. Peeraabout. Mr. Peeraabout, the Moon-Man, was sitting on the star Comet-Legs usually rode, and that rascally fairy was sitting on a Moon-mountain and reaching for it.
"Why don't you give me my star?" complained Comet-Legs.
"Humph!" exclaimed the Moon-Man. "Why do you want it?"
"To get away from this pesky place," said Comet-Legs.
"What! Don't you wish to be the Main-in-the-Moon any more?" asked Mr. Peeraabout.
"No, I don't!" Comet-Legs declared. "I thought it would be an easy job, but I find you can't suit everybody. I gave 'em all sorts of Moons—did everything I knew how and didn't know how, and small thanks I got. I've quit. Now please give me my star."
"Not so fast," said Mr. Peeraabout. "Now you've had your way. I'm going to have mine. You've got to make me some promises. First of all, will you go away and stay away?"
"Yes sir," said Comet-Legs with a wag of his head.
"And will you promise not to interfere with the nice dreams my dream-fairies take to the earth?"
"Yes sir!" declared Comet-Legs again.
"And will you take all the Nuisance Fairies you let out back to Bluster-Gust Land—Jack Frost, Howly Thunder, Jumpy Lightning, Dense Fog and all the others?"
"Yes sir, I will!" promised Comet-Legs.
"All right! Then you may have your star."
Mr. Peeraabout got off the star and Comet-Legs got on. He wrapped his crooked legs about the sharp points and away he flew across the sky. Earth children cried, "Oh, there goes a comet!"
Nancy and Nick never saw him again.

Status of Red Trail Threatened

Certain energetic citizens who live on the Yellowstone trail assert that they are going to make an effort to have it supplant the Red Trail as the recognized national transcontinental highway for the northern district with the United States government. Threats of such action are contained in the call for the annual meeting of the National Parks highway association to be held July 10 in the Commercial club rooms in Fargo.

SINK THE "THREE-MILE BOOZE" SHIPS, PASSENGERS, TOO, SAYS BILLY SUNDAY

Shall United States ships sell liquor outside the three-mile limit? "No," says Adolphus Busch of St. Louis, former brewer, who charged, in a letter to President Harding, that the United States, in permitting it, is the "greatest bootlegger of all."
"Yes," says A. D. Lasker, chairman of the Shipping Board, who has ruled the practice legal and who points out that if liquorless American boats had to compete with foreign vessels that sold liquor to passengers, there would soon be no American merchant marine.
Here is what Billy Sunday, evangelist and one of old John Barleycorn's chief enemies, has to say of it:

BY W. A. SUNDAY.
Morristown, Tenn., June 29.—If there should prove to be a possible legal loophole to justify such a ruling as Lasker has made, I think the fact that 46 states have ratified the eighteenth amendment, that the overwhelming majority of the people are in favor of prohibition and the flag waves over a saloonless land would have had sufficient weight with a government official than to promote a ruling which would allow the saloons to laugh into our faces from a ship flying the Stars and Stripes, simply because she is outside the three-mile limit.
That ship is sailing under the Stars and Stripes and our laws, backed by our moral sentiments, and not under John Barleycorn's God-forsaken whiskey and beer-soaked flag which we have torn down.

Drinking and carousing on board a ship flying our flag gives to the whiskey-soaked nations of the world the impression of government sanction and the idea that "we are with you," while our slogan is "To hell with booze!"

Of course the thirty-odd organized societies to oppose and fight the Volstead act and eighteenth amendment and its enforcement and all the bootleggers, anti-liberty, hobo, riff-raff, publicly rag-shag of society will cheer such a decision, while the brawn, brain, moral and religious sentiment of our land will condemn it.

Prohibition has been the greatest Godsend to business this country has ever seen. Former breweries and distilleries and saloons have been turned into cotton mills, ice plants, packing houses, cold storage, into soda fountains, soft drink parlors, restaurants, shoe stores and ice cream parlors.

And so if the continued existence of the American merchant marine depends upon selling booze to the gang of booze heisters who go aboard, then let them sink.

Germany has disappeared as a result of the war."

A THOUGHT

How precious also are my thoughts unto me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:
When I awake I am still with Thee.—Psalm 139:17-18.
The tree of knowledge is grafted upon the tree of life and that fruit which brought the fear of death into the world, budding on immortal stock, becomes the fruit of the promise of immortality.—Sir Humphrey Davy.

AT THE MOVIES

"WILDFIRE" AT THE ELTINGE
The attraction at the Eltinge for Friday and Saturday is Zane Grey's popular story, "Wildfire," released as "When Romance Rides."
The producer claims for this photoplay that it is a new type of modern western drama, for in it the western flannel shirt alternates with the tuxedo, the riding habit with the delectable gown, and picturesque rugged exteriors, with elaborate and artistic interiors.
"When Romance Rides" contains all the lively incident, the human, everyday characterization and the beautiful scenic backgrounds which have proved such a powerful magic.

Today's word is HEGEMONY.
It's pronounced, variously, he-jom-oni, with accent on the second syllable; he-jom-oni, with accent on the first syllable, and he-jom-oni, also with accent on the first syllable.
It means—leadership, preponderant influence or authority, and usually is applied to the relationship of a government or state to its neighbors.
It comes from a Greek root meaning "to go before."
It's used like this: "To a considerable extent Prussia hegemony in

It contains one of the most thrilling horse races ever staged and as a climax, the heroine is seen, tied face down on the back of a fear-maddened horse recently reclaimed from a wild state, riding towards a precipice. The photoplay for this Mazepa-like ride and for the great horse race at the rodeo is a flag example of how emotion-stirring here, motion photography can become.
Baby Peggy and Brownie her dog will also appear at the Eltinge Friday and Saturday. "Smilin' Through" with Norma Talmadge is being shown for the last times today, Thursday.

EVA NOVAK HERE AGAIN IN FOX SPECIAL FILM

In "The Last Trail," a William Fox super-special production based on Zane Grey's fine and stirring novel, and to be presented at the Capitol theater, is a little actress well and favorably known here. She is Eva Novak, and she enacts the leading feminine role, playing opposite Marjorie Flynn in the male lead.
Miss Novak, who is petite and possessed of a very definite charm, has been seen in four other Fox productions during the past eighteen months in all leading woman with the celebrated Tom Mix. These four pictures were "The Speed Maniac," "The Daredevil," "Desert Love" and, very recently, "The Rough Diamond."
Miss Novak's previous picture experience was with Paramount, Equity, Fine Art, Universal and Famous Players-Lasky.
The feature will be at the Capitol theater next Monday.

MONTHS OF SUFFERING
How a Baltimore Girl Recovered Her Health

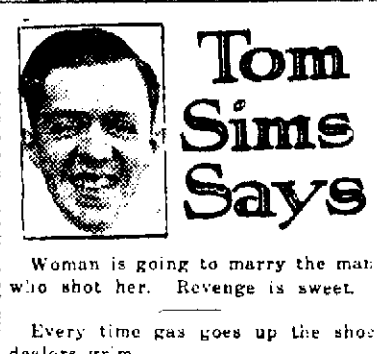

Baltimore, Maryland.—"For several months I suffered with severe backache and general weakness. I could not sleep comfortably at night for pains in my back. I found your book at home one day and after reading it began at once to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very good results and some of my girl friends are taking it now. You may use this letter to help other girls, as the letters in your book helped me."—ROSE WARDNER, 3018 Roseland Place, Baltimore, Md.
That is the thought so often expressed in letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. These women know what they have suffered, they describe their symptoms and state how they were finally made well. Just plain statements, but they want other women to be helped.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine made from medicinal roots and herbs, and without drugs, to relieve the sickness women so often have, which is indicated by backache, weak feelings, nervousness, and no ambition to get anything done or to go anywhere. It has helped many women. Why not try it?
